

First of the RSEP International Conferences was organized on 28-30 April 2016, in Prague, Czech Republic and Holiday Inn Prague Congress Center hosted the conference. 1st RSEP Conference was not the place of happened on visitors; individually the participants came to present their studies, excitedly. From Sweden, Spain, Poland, Turkey, Portugal... As the phrase goes, there was a think thank parade, it has not been overstated.

Prague Conference lasted during the day, separated by four sessions. Firstly, the keynote speaker Hasse Ekstedt from Sweden, realized the keynote speech and presented his study. His presentation was literally interdisciplinary research. For this reason, the audience were on Mr. Ekstedt's trail.

Also, some students attended the conference as being listeners. They carefully followed the presentations and they'd been read like an open book, from their concern to the issues presented.

One of the chairs, Ali Tarhan from Central Bank of Turkey, adorned to the conference by his own experinced and intellectual background besides his consideration the social issues from a different perspective. Another colourful personality, Patrycja Chodnicka-Jaworska from the University of Warsaw, had officiated chair task and additionally presented her study, which was the sub-discipline of financial economics.

One of the youngest participants, Asli Ertan from Turkey, presented her attractive and technological thematic study. So, she got questions relevant the Following day the conference participants, who choose to attend, had a nice "Kutna Hora" city tour. They'd seen touristic and historical remains, also churches, basilicas, cathedrals, chapels and old graveyards.

